

Bio-Cassandra C. Jackson, MA, PPS

Over the course of twenty years, Cassandra C. Jackson worked in counseling, higher education, and human resources to empower families, students, and employees. Cassandra has worked with students as a Counselor, Career Counselor, Program Coordinator at the University of Missouri Columbia, and Counseling Supervisor at Temple University. She also served as a therapist providing personal counseling to families and individuals in the inner city of Philadelphia at the Place of Refuge and Counseling with a Biblical Perspective at St. James Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Jackson is a Guidance and College Counselor at a Catholic school in Mountain View, California. She provides personal, academic, and career counseling to students. Cassandra helps students navigate the college admission process. Also, she has served as the Assistant Director of Holy Cross Achievers Program and the Black Student Union Moderator. In 2022, Mrs. Jackson was hired as a consultant to work with Bay Area Health County Advisory Council (BACHAC) to create programming for the Resilience and Mental Wellness Initiative. She was later hired as a Co-Program Manager to implement the African American Community Assessment Project funded by the San Mateo County of Behavioral Services.

Cassandra has a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Xavier University of Louisiana, a Master of Arts in Educational Counseling Psychology with an emphasis in Career Development from the University of Missouri-Columbia and a Human Resources Management certificate from Villanova University. She studied at Saint Louis University and completed doctoral coursework in Counseling and Family Therapy and a yearlong counseling internship at the Family Development Center. She completed her Pupil Personnel Services Credential in School Counseling from San Jose State University.