Key priorities for BHSA include:

- Inclusive of substance use without a primary mental health diagnosis
- Focus on the most vulnerable individuals living with serious mental illness (SMI) and/or substance use disorder (SUD), who are at-risk or chronically homeless and at risk for justice involvement.
- Build supportive housing and unlocked community mental health and substance use treatment settings.
- Redirect the Mental Health Services Act (MHSA) funds to housing interventions, full service partnerships, and other core services, including early intervention.
- Create transparency in fiscal planning and reporting across all behavioral health revenues (local and state).
- Standardize outcome reporting across all
