

Hazardous Waste Management Training for Small Quantity Generators

San Mateo County Environmental Health Department is providing FREE hazardous waste management training for businesses within San Mateo County that generate hazardous waste as part of their operations and are classified as small quantity generators (SQGs). This training program covers the basics of hazardous waste identification, proper labeling, and accumulation, transportation, and disposal regulations for self-generated hazardous waste and universal waste as well as applicable recordkeeping requirements. Participants will receive a comprehensive course manual, record of training, and certificate of completion. 2020 training dates are listed below:

2020

January 9	July 9
February 13	August 13
March 12	September 10
April 9	October 8
May 14	November 12
June 11	December 3

All classes scheduled 8am – 10am
Refreshments will be provided

Registration Form:

Name: _____ Phone #: _____

Business Name: _____

Business Address: _____

Email: _____ Class Date: _____

The training will be conducted by

Please contact the registrar at (800) 637 – 2384, fax this form to (916) 353 – 2375, or email it to registrar@nesglobal.net to reserve your spot — space is limited!

All training programs will be provided at:
2000 Alameda de las Pulgas, San Mateo, CA 94403 - Atrium Room

